World Environmental Day 2018

On June 5 of each year, people in approximately 100 nations mark World Environment Day. Despite being declared and created by the UN General Assembly in 1972, it has been observed annually since 1973. The United Nations declared a certain theme for it to act on, and that is what it celebrates every year.

Every year, a different city hosts the commemoration of this campaign, during which a week-long worldwide exhibition is held. Through this campaign celebration, the UN aims to raise environmental awareness among the public. An annual campaign to positively influence public opinion and political attention is successful.

The Department of Biotechnology and the Department of Civil Engineering of Adhiyamaan College of Engineering collaborated to host the World Environmental Day on June 5, 2018 on the campus. talk by Dr. Narendra Singh, professor of information technology at Manipal. The motion to thank the coordinator was made by Dr. V. Maivasagan. 1100 or more students have participated in the programme.

Teacher's Day 2018

The actual potter of life is the teacher; they not only mould our lives but also help them continue to glow brightly even when the rest of the world has gone dark. As a result, all teachers are respected in the nation and help to illuminate it with enormous light. We cannot receive compensation for the excellent job of our instructors, but we can show them respect and gratitude. We must sincerely pledge to respect our teachers because we are all unable to do so in this world.

Engineer's Day 2018

By using their expertise in nearly everything, Engineers are influencing the future.

They simplify our lives by turning the theoretical knowledge of the fundamental sciences into useful goods. Engineers have a flexible mind and bridge the gap between science, technology, and society. India's engineers make significant contributions to the country's industrial and technological development. There is virtually no end to what engineers can accomplish.

The event is being organised chiefly by Dr. J. Arivudainambi, HOD/Aeronautical Engineering, and Dr. V. Manivasagan, Professor/Biotechnology. Over 200 students have participated in the programme. Dr.VManivasagan made the motion to thank everyone.

Parakram Divas: Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Birthday 2019

An Indian nationalist named Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose is remembered for his love of his country by many Indians. He is well-known for founding the organisation "Azad Hind Fauj," and his catchphrase is "Tum Mujhe Khoon Do, Main Tumhe Aazadi Dunga."

Born in Cuttack, Orissa, on January 23, 1897, Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose passed away in a Taiwanese hospital on August 18, 1945, from burn wounds acquired in a plane crash.

The most well-known liberation fighter, Subhas Chandra Bose possessed exceptional leadership qualities and was a captivating orator. His catchphrases include "Delhi Chalo," "tum mujhe khoon do," and "main tumhe aazadi dunga." He established Azad Hind Fauj and made numerous contributions to the fight for India's independence. He is renowned for his socialist policies as well as for the aggressive tactics he utilised to win independence.

National Voters Day 2019

Since 2011, January 25 has been designated as National Voters' Day across the nation to commemorate the founding date of the Election Commission of India, which was January 25, 1950. Making Elections Inclusive, Accessible, and Participative is the theme for this year's NVD.

The primary goal of the NVD celebration is to promote, facilitate, and increase registration, particularly among new voters. The day, which is devoted to the nation's voters, is used to raise voter awareness and encourage informed participation in the election process.

The principal, Dr. G. Ranganath, briefed the students before the event about the significance of voting, how to choose the leaders of different election bodies, and how to vote without bias based on caste, creed, or language. Students then took an oath to cast their ballots impartially and without fear of any consequences. A total of 300 students had participated in the activity. The Local Government Authorities were present for the Day's celebration.

Science Day Celebration 2019

Since 1987, our nation has observed National Science Day on February 28 in honour of Sir CV Raman, a prominent Indian physicist who made the "Raman Effect" discovery. "Integrated Approach in Science and Technology for Sustainable Future" served as the theme for this year. On the occasion of National Science Day, we at Adhiyamaan College of Engineering, Hosur conducted Science day celebrations in our college as Science week from 22nd to 28th February 2019. We have conducted week-long activities which included competitions like Essay writing, elocution, quiz, spot painting, PowerPoint presentation, and science projects exhibition for all department students. Special talks were arranged. Nearly 100 Students from various departments are actively in the events with great enthusiasm. Science day celebrations started with the inaugural session on 22nd Feb 2019 with the lighting of the lamp and paying homage to Sir C. V. Raman. 250 students and faculties from various departments attended the gathering.

The Institute Principal Dr. G. Ranganath presided over the session and gave a brief introduction about the significance of celebrating National Science Day on 28th February and the importance of women in science as this year's focal theme. He also explained the research opportunities for women in science.

Women science faculty of our colleagues involved in research activities gave special talks and encouraged students to take up careers in scientific research.

International Women's Day 2019

International Women's Day (IWD) is a global holiday commemorating the cultural, political, and socioeconomic accomplishment of women. It is observed annually on March 8. It also serves as a focal point for the movement for women's rights, which highlights topics including violence against women, the right to an abortion, and gender equality. International Women's Day is marked in a number of different ways across the globe; it is a public holiday in a number of important nations and is observed locally or socially in others to honour and promote the accomplishments of women. When it comes to a specific campaign, topic, or theme related to women's rights, the UN follows the. IWD still reflects its political roots in some regions of the world, with protests and calls for radical change; in other regions, especially in the West, it is primarily socio-cultural and focused on a celebration of womanhood.

Women's Day Celebrations are held on March 8th every year at Adhiyamaan College of Engineering thanks to the establishment of a dedicated Women Empowerment Cell.

On March 8, 2019, the Women Empowerment Cell of Adhiyamaan College of Engineering observed International Women's Day. Technical paper presentations, technical quizzes, and a variety of entertaining games were among the several events planned. Dr. G. Ranganath Principal served as the event's host. Dr. Prameela Kaladharan welcomed the gathering. Mrs. M. R Jayalaxmi Dy. General Manager, WRI BHEL Tiruchirapalli graced the occasion and advised the Students to follow ethics and maintain family values. Technical Paper Presentation was organized related to the Women's issues faced in the Work place. Dr. T Menakadevi WEC proposed the vote of thanks. Around 300 students and 50 Women Faculty Members have taken part in the event

World Telecommunication Day 2019

Since 1969, the 17th of May has been designated as World Telecommunication Day to commemorate the creation of the ITU and the signing of the first International Telegraph Convention in 1865. On May 17, 2018, the Adhiyamaan College of Engineering's Institution of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering (IETE) Students Forum observed World Telecommunication Day. For the benefit of the students in every sector, a variety of telecommunications-related events were held to assist them broaden their knowledge and develop their talents in a variety of areas. In order to draw attention to the significance of information and communication technology (ICT) and the multitude of issues related to the Information Society raised by the World Summit on the Information Society, the World Summit on the Information Society requested that the UN General Assembly proclaim May 17 as World Information Society Day and World Telecommunication Day in November 2005. (WSIS). World Information Society Day will be observed annually on May 17 thanks to a resolution (A/RES/60/252) passed by the General Assembly in March 2006. The Adhiyamaan College of Engineering's Institution of Electronics and Telecommunication Engineers (IETE) Forum recently held a celebration with the subject "Artificial Intelligence for All."
